ATTENDANCE MATTERS

Firstly, well done Year 6 for all their efforts this week.

And now a gentle (sing along reminder) about letting the office know if your child is absent.

To the tune of 'Sweet Caroline' I'll count you in;

(3,4) Where your child is, we can't begin to know it
Now and again we need a clue.
Is it a cough! Now coughs become much stronger.
Maybe your child has got the flu.
Please, phone it in. Or use Seesaw
Tell us please where they are.

Chorus: Give us a call (Dah Dah Dah) or use the office Seesaw
Leave us a note (Dah Dah Dah) or a voicemail message
Please, please please please (repeat chorus)

Thanks, have a good weekend. Mr Southern

Dear Parents/Carers

We have been contacted by Sonya Grove, a community programme worker for Wigan Council specializing in educating people about Domestic Abuse. She would like to offer a training/awareness course to parents and carers of the children who attend Christ Church. The adults who wish to attend do not have to be in an abusive relationship, they may just wish to learn more about abuse to educate themselves or to support family/friends. The session will be looking at how abuse effects children and parenting styles.

She has arranged some zoom sessions on:
Tuesday 17th May 12:30 - 2:30pm
Thursday 26th May 6:30 - 8:30pm

These sessions can be booked through Eventbrite, via the link below:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/311808907837>

If you have any questions or would like to discuss domestic abuse training, feel free to email sonya@diasdvc.org or phone 01942 311365
