ATTENDANCE MATTERS

'Better late than never' is the saying. In some instances, it's hard to disagree. In this instance it depends on your outlook. What I'm rattling on about are the RAG (Red, Amber, Green) letters. Having listened to feedback, these should now be referred to as W letters as they are all white.

Please read the covering letter carefully as it explains any further action and give the D.I.Y. maths crib sheet regarding Covid absences.

We have another visit from our Attendance Officer just after half-term and she will be scrutinising us regarding any child whose attendance is at 90% or below. I'd better have some good answers.

Thanks, Mr Southern
